LET YOUR HAIR DOWN

Lainston House offers a great selection of ways to unwind and relax after (or during!) the demands of the working day...

- AA five-star country house hotel set in 63 acres of parkland with way-marked walks
- 50 individually designed rooms and suites so no two are the same... some have four poster beds or spa baths and heated bathroom floors, one has its own sauna and many have delightful views over the grounds and surrounding countryside
- Well-equipped gym situated in the renovated 17th century well house
- Fine dining in the Avenue Restaurant (3 AA Rosettes) or on our terrace ideal for outside dining for up to 50 people
- Kitchen garden for drinks receptions and dining for up to 80 people
- Relax with a glass of something lovely in the Cedar Bar or Drawing Room

LET YOUR IMAGINATION FLY

We can arrange almost anything to challenge you or help you relax during your stay:

- On-site falconer for falconry experiences, owl walks, hunting with hawks and static and flying displays. Our collection of birds of prey includes Bengal Eagle Owls, Harris Hawks, Barn Owls and a Golden Eagle.
- Tennis courts, mountain bikes, jogging trails, French boules and croquet
- Stone-baked pizza oven in the Victorian kitchen garden - 'pick' your own ingredients from the garden and be tutored by the hotel's chefs on how to use them to make a variety of treats such as pizza and specialty breads
- Large activity field for team-building and motorised sports
- Bespoke fly fishing and shooting experiences
- Wine tasting, whisky tasting, cocktail making and demonstrations, themed lunches, dinners and coffee breaks, treasure hunts, giant games, or dinner in our outdoor pavilion
- Within easy reach of Winchester, Grange Park Opera, Jane Austen's House, the New Forest National Park and many more local attractions

LET US GET YOU HERE:

55 minutes by train from central London and a 25 minute drive from Southampton Airport and under an hour from Heathrow International Airport and close to many major motorways
